

ROUND WE GO

Some of the most sought-after “new” pieces of furniture were designed decades ago. NICK VINSON on the smartest re-issues. Photography by MATTIA BALSAMINI

Nyn chest of drawers

by Chi Wing Lo for Giorgetti

This corner chest of drawers in maple was designed by Chi Wing Lo in 1995. It was the start of a long and fruitful collaboration between the Hong Kong-born designer and the Brianza-based cabinet maker Giorgetti. When the doors and drawers are open, it really comes to life.

From £16,523, giorgetti.com

Costes chair

by Philippe Starck for Driade

In 1984 Philippe Starck designed Café Costes in Paris and for that project created this now-iconic chair. Last year Driade celebrated its 40th year of producing the Costes chair, with its three legs, painted tubular steel frame and curved plywood shell. €990, driade.com

