

VILLA COLETTE, BLISSFUL HOSPITALITY IN KEEPING WITH CAP-FERRET

At the tip of the peninsula, Cap-Ferret.
Here, nature and the elements find their most striking expression.
For Laurent Taïeb and Philippe Starck, a rare backcloth, beyond the reach of time, full of spirit, arousing a deep feeling of plenitude and jubilation.
Here, facing the sea, Villa Colette and its environment are joyfully intertwined.
Desires soon follow: to set off, go swimming at high tide, wander around on foot or enjoy a bike ride.
With, as a bonus, the delight of feeling like a natural-born Cap-Ferretian, for the duration of your stay.

At the far end of the oyster-farming cape (after Claouey, Petit and Grand Piquey, Le Canon, then L'Herbe), one discovers Cap-Ferret. Welcome to world's end…
Here, between the sand dune of Le Pilat and Le Banc d'Arguin, the Atlantic Ocean and the Bay of Arcachon, the pine forest and the sand spit of Le Mimbeau, nature attains its highest peak.
An on-going invitation to slow down, contemplate, recharge your batteries, and be thrilled to the core.

VILLA COLETTE, A VILLA ON THE SEAFRONT

Cap-Ferret is reflected here, in this villa on an idyllic bay where designer Philippe Starck sets the vision of Laurent Taieb to music.
On the village square, facing the Bassin d'Arcachon, behind the walls of its elegant, neo 19th-century architecture, Villa Colette unveils a refined, bountiful world, presented in the guise of a joyful home.
Its 28 rooms and suites, its restaurant, bar and terrace facing the horizon all provide backcloths for a soothing yet sparkling life.
Beyond trends, between playful sophistication, poetic charm and profound jubilation, a modern, Cap-Ferretian version of enchantment takes the stage.

In soft, caressing shades, each room, each suite, extends the experience.
Private gardens, balconies or terraces open out to the Bay of Arcachon, the age-old pine forest or the heart of the village. Shades of powdery pink, elegant mahogany furnishings, refined bathrooms, and rows of surrealist photos make you feel as if you are floating on air. Here, more than outside, between dreams and reality, your mind wanders, your eyes begin to smile.

THE RESTAURANT, HERE AND ELSEWHERE

At the heart of Villa Colette, the restaurant enchants, but also surprises.
Orchestrated by chef Benjamin Six, the dishes pay tribute to international cuisine, freely interpreted and finely tuned. The morning's local catch entertains a dialogue with creations presenting influences from elsewhere. Featuring galleries of mirrors, disguised portraits and sparkling silverware, this very precise decor sets the stage for a unique experience beneath a glass roof clad in sunlight or shimmering starlight.

THE BAR, THE HEART OF THE VILLA

This boudoir in lemon yellow proposes a bar, plush lounges, a stove from another era, and its piano made of precious wood. Throughout the day, rituals unfold one after another:
coffee while admiring the bay, tea-time after a boat ride in a traditional "pinasse", a game of backgammon by the fireside… Then, as the light begins to fade,
a signature cocktail while facing the bay,
to the tinkling of the piano.

Full of light and a sense of freedom, Cap-Ferret is discovered here in a new way.
Villa Colette inspires simple yet precious experiences: swimming at daybreak, setting off in a "pinasse" for the Dune du Pilat, biking beneath the pines as far as L'Herbe, relishing oysters while facing the sea.
At each moment, nature sets the pace, a laidback atmosphere holds sway, and elegance is portrayed in each detail.
Throughout your stay, a backcloth for blissful hospitality.

VILLA COLETTE

39 BOULEVARD DE LA PLAGE
33970 LÈGE-CAP-FERRET
VILLACOLETTE.COM

MEDIA CONTACTS

Melchior | Agence de Communication
8 rue Montauban | Paris 15th

MICHAËL TORINO-GARDIE
Director, Travel & International Department +33 (0)6 82 57 88 41
michael@agencemelchior.com

LAURA TUDAL
Assistant Director, Travel Department +33 (0)6 98 75 18 43
laura@agencemelchior.com

MORGANE COURNIER
PR Consultant, Travel Department +33 (0)6 82 74 08 34
morgane@agencemelchior.com